

St Cynllo Loop

An easy walk through lovely woodland.

Mixture of pavement, road, track and woodland.

© OpenStreetMaps © OS Open Zoomstack 17-01-2023

Enjoy this ramble? There are 145 Paths to Wellbeing routes to explore across Wales!

Easy

60m

Circular

2.5km | 1.5m

00:45

S

Starting from St Cynllo Church Car Park, turn L and head up the road with the houses on your L. At the end of the row of houses there is a roadside waymark post where you turn L. Head along the track with farmland on either side, then turn L and carry along the footpath until you reach the lane. Turn R and head toward the main road. When you reach the main road be mindful of the traffic and go straight across to join another lane.

1

There is a house on your L with a waymark post just after leading onto the footpath which runs along a track. Turn L and follow the track. As you go along the track you will enter the woodland and the track will curve around to the L. Continue along the track and you will see a row of beautifully carved tree stumps on your R, follow the track and the footpath will go downhill into the woodland. At the bottom of the hill is a wooden footbridge.

2

Turn R once you cross the footbridge and continue along the footpath, through the woodland. You will pass an abandoned house on your L and eventually you will come to the main road. Once you join the main road, turn L and continue for a short distance before turning R back down the lane towards Llangoedmor. Continue along the lane and you will see St Cynllo church on your R. Continue along the lane with the church on your R and you will see the car park on your L.