

Short Brynberian Loop

Enjoy a short picturesque circular walk around Brynberian.

Route undergoing improvement. Muddy field tracks, stiles present. High chance of large livestock on route.

Enjoy this ramble? There are 145 Paths to Wellbeing routes to explore across Wales!

Leisurely

102m

Circular

3.3km | 2.0m

01:05

S

Starting from Brynberian Independent Chapel take path L through gate. Continue past farm building across field to stream on R. Cross stream and turn L following the route along the fence line. Go through gate and cross stream using sleeper bridge. Take stile on L entering field. Continue ahead following the route along the fence line. Take next stile and continue across field, gradually ascending. Exit through gate by houses onto tarmac road and turn R. Take the next signposted gate on the L.

1

Follow the route as it travels gradually uphill through the field. Pass through a number of gates and continue to follow the waymarking posts as the path meanders past the white house of Pen Parc farm. Exit through a signposted gate turning R onto the tarmac road. As you walk along the road observe the Standing Stones to your L, one of many prehistoric archaeological features in the area. Follow the road straight ahead for 0.2 miles / 350m. Continue on road turning R as it begins to head downhill.

2

Enter field through signposted gate on R. Follow the desired route along the perimeter as you descend through the field. Take stile ahead into next field. Continue across field exiting through gate onto tarmac road. Bear R and then take next signposted gate on L entering field. Follow route across field taking the next stile. Continue across field exiting via gate onto tarmac road. Turn R and follow road into village. Turn R and follow path back to Brynberian Chapel.