Starting from Canolfan Llwynihirion Brynberian, at the gate take the road straight ahead into the village. Pass the old red telephone box which is now a Defibrillator and community book swap library. Take the signposted bridleway on the R by the Post Box. Continue along the bridleway past Brynberian Chapel on your R, until reaching the main road (B4239). The grade II listed chapel has graves dating back to the 18th century and is one of the oldest non-conformist chapels in north Pembrokeshire.

Cross the road to the lane with the stone sign 'Sinar' and follow the stony lane down towards the farmhouse. Passing the farmhouse on the L take the gate on the R out onto the open access Preseli moorland. Continue straight ahead for 0.3 miles / 500m passing a fenced enclosure on the R. Before proceeding further along the route you may wish to explore the Preseli Hills or just take your time to enjoy the scenic landscape. Situated within Pembrokeshire Coast National Park this area supports a diverse array of wildlife.

At the corner of the second fenced enclosure, cross over the stream on the R and enter the enclosure over the stile on the L. Follow the waymarking through the Tyr Dŵr farm buildings and up the stony lane to the main road (B4239). Proceed with caution as this road is well used by fast moving traffic. Turn R and walk along the road for 0.3 miles / 500m, taking the first road on the L. Continue following the road until reaching a T junction. Turn L at the junction and follow the road back to the Canolfan.
