Starting from Canolfan Llwynihirion Brynberian, turn sharp L out of the gate following the road past the Canolfan on your L. Continue past farm buildings until reaching a signposted gate on the R. If you wish to avoid crossing fields you can continue along the road here following signs for the Burial Chamber. Go through the gate crossing field ahead, through a second gate then turn immediately L through a third gate. Cross the field exiting onto the road via the next gate. Turn R and follow the road to Pentre Ifan Burial Chamber.

1

Go through the gate on your L and follow the short track to the Burial Chamber. Built during the Neolithic era this remarkable cromlech comprises three upright stones supporting a gigantic capstone estimated to weigh 16 tons. Enjoy the views to Newport Bay / Bae Trefdreath and Mynydd Carningli before returning along the track to the road. Turn R and retrace the route back to the bend in the road. If you wish to avoid crossing fields and stiles follow the road back to the Canolfan from this point.

2

Take the sign posted gate on the L, crossing a number of fields and four stiles. Continue following the path around the hedge to the L of the white gate. Go through the signposted gate exiting onto the road. Turn R and follow the road. As the road bends continue bearing R following the road on a gradual incline back to Canolfan Llwynihirion Brynberian.
