- S Starting from Llyfrgell Maindee Library (with the building behind you), turn R and walk down Chepstow road (B4237). At the War Memorial, turn R and cross the road (over the B4596). On the other side of the road, turn L and cross over toward the NEON Music venue (crossing E Usk road). Continue walking down this side of the road until you are in front of the multi story car park. Take the traffic controlled crossing here to the other side of the road.

1 Turn R when reaching the other side of the road and head straight over toward the bridge. On the L hand side, before the bridge itself, is a path taking you down to the riverside. Follow this riverside path and eventually cross over the Newport City Footbridge on your R hand side. Turn L when on the other side and stick to the riverside path past Newport City Campus. Continue along here until just before you pass under the George Street Bridge.

2 On your R hand side you will see steps leading up to the bridge itself. At the top of the steps, turn L and walk over the bridge. Continue until you come to the cross junction. Here, do a U-turn to your L and walk the lower path between the bridge and houses. Follow the bend round to your L then round to your R when faced with a T junction. Continue on this road and around to the R which will pass you under the bridge you just walked over. Continue walking the path until you come across four bollards on your R, leading to Rodney Road.

3 Pass through the bollards and go straight ahead over the road to meet another path with a fenced car park on your L. Head down this path until you come out by a bus stop on Corporation Road. Turn L on this road and continue until you pass a bug themed mural on the end of a property. A little further ahead, an island crossing will take to the other side of the road. Turn L when on the other side of the road and take the next street on your R (Harrow road).

4 Following this street to the end will bring you back to Chepstow road (B4237). Turning R at the T junction will bring you back to Llyfrgell Maindee Library (use the crossing just after the petrol station to return to the same side of the road you started on).
