S Starting from the bus stop in front of the shops on Heol y Pentre. Look for the prominent Capel Horeb (Acapela) at the road junction. Acapela is a recording studio and musical venue. Cross the road at the line of white bollards at the end of Field Terrace to Heol Goch and continue past Acapela.

1 Head up the slope to the carpark opposite the Lewis Arms. Take the path from the top corner of the carpark that follows the perimeter of the playground, avoiding the narrow road, below the rocky mound and war memorial. Continue along Heol Goch past bungalows and take the R fork into Cefn Bychan. Walk to the far end of this no through road where there is a gate and stile into a field.

2 Cross the stile into the field and turn R keeping the field edge on your R. You will pass a gate on your R, but keep straight ahead into the next field. On your R you will be following the edge of a narrow strip of trees, follow this to the next gate and into another field.

3 Option 1 (shortest option – not waymarked). This avoids walking down Caerau Lane (a narrow country lane with no pavement). From here you can see Jacks Barn a derelict building to your L. Please do not attempt to go over to explore as it is on private land. At the end of the strip of trees, there is a metal kissing gate to your R. Go through this gate and follow the narrow strip of path to the gate that leads onto the junction of Caerau Lane with Heol y Pentre. Turn R up hill on Heol y Pentre back to the start of your walk at the village shops.

Option 2 (slightly longer option). From the end of the strip of trees keep straight ahead and pass through a wooden kissing gate. Follow close to the field boundary, (do not cut across the corner of the field), leading to Caerau Lane. Turn R on the lane and walk down hill to join Heol Y Pentre. Keep R, up Heol y Pentre back to the start of the walk at the shops.
