S Gan gychwyn o Borth-y-Felin yng Nghaerdybi, dilynwch Lwybr yr Arfordir ar hyd y morglawdd ac ar hyd yr arfordir caregog. Pan gyrhaeddwch Barc Gwledig y Morglawdd, arhoswch ar lwybr yr arfordir tan i chi gyrraedd golygfau o dan y clogwyni. O'r fan hon, dringwch y grisiau a dilynwch Lwybr yr Arfordir a fydd yn eich arwain i Ynys Arw. Arhoswch ar y llwybr graean sy'n arwain heibio Ynys Arw, o amgylch y pentir, ac yna'n ôl i Barc Gwledig y Morglawdd.

1 Ewch drwy'r parc gwledig, trawch i'r Dd i'r ffordd sy'n arwain allan o'r parc. Dilynwch y llwybr troed cyntaf i'r Dd o'r ffordd, yna trawch i'r Ch wrth y gyffordd. Llwybr gwledig yw hwn ac mae'n ddewis gwell na cherdded ar hyd y palmant ar ymyl y ffordd. Dilynwch y llwybr hwn i fynd yn ôl i lawr at y ffordd ar hyd llwybr graean, yna croeswch y ffordd a dilyn llwybr yr arfordir heibio adeilad diwydiannol mawr. Trawch i'r Dd yn union ar ôl yr adeilad hwn a dilynwch llwybr yr arfordir yn ôl i'r man cychwynn.

Starting from Porth Y Felin in Holyhead, follow the Coast Path along past the breakwater and along the rocky coast. When you reach Breakwater Country Park, continue to follow the coast path and you'll reach a viewpoint beneath the cliffs. From here, take the steps up and follow the Coast Path which will lead you to North Stack. Continue along the gravel track which leads past North Stack, around the headland, and then back down to Breakwater Country Park. This is hilly terrain and it is advised that you use the GPX file and a map to navigate.

Head through the country park, turn R onto the road leading out of the park. Take the first footpath leading off to the R of the road and then turn L at the junction. This is a country path and a nicer alternative than walking along the pavement by the road. Follow this path and it'll back down to the road via a gravel path, and then cross over and follow the coast path past a large industrial building. Turn R just after this building and follow the coast path back to the start location.
