Starting from Six Bells Park walk down Eastville Road until you reach Bridge Street. Turn L and walk down until Chapel Road where you turn R and head across and towards the houses where a small track will lead around to the R. Continue on this path until a fork to the L drops you down onto the cycle path continue on this path until it leads you back out onto Castle Street. Continue Straight on until you reach Alma Street where you turn R and head up towards the school.

1

Continue with the school on you R and follow this road for a while until you reach a path leading through the wooded area and bringing you out by Caffi Tyleri and Cwmtillyery Park. Continue past until you reach Cwmtillyery Lakes on Ty-Dan-Y-Wal Road. Cross over and head past Cwmtillyery Lakes on your L and follow the tarmac track up towards the reservoir. Here a gate leads through the fields and towards a ruined farmhouse. Once here, turn R and head up the path towards the wall with the small stream on your L.

Pass through the gate and head up to and turning R onto the road. Follow this road until you see a track headed L up the hill and over the top of the disused quarry. Continue on this track as it contours around the valley, past old quarry workings until you see a track headed up towards the woods and the top of the hill. Follow this along the line of the woodland until you reach the top of Nant y Groes valley. From here, a sharp turn to the L will lead you part way down the hill towards a gate that enters the woods.

From the gate the track leads through the woods and contours around the hill headed towards Penrhiggarreg. It exits the Woods onto a road where you will turn L and head down the hill towards Cwm Farm Road. Turn L here and follow the road all the way back to Six Bells Park.
