Starting from Maes Offa, turn R along the road and follow as far as the Post Office. Just after the PO turn R down the footpath and follow through the field and out onto the lane by the old Mill. At the Old Mill cross the stile into the field and across the bridge and further stile. Continue across the next field to the stile opposite then start to trend L and uphill. This path will meet the road on a fairly steep hill.

Cross straight over the road following the footpath sign up the track. The path will pass between a house and some stables and just L of a riding area. The pleasant path then leads to another stile and onto a track by a house. Follow the track downhill passing under the old railway bridge. You will cross over a stream on a metal footbridge then climb back to meet the road.
