Starting from the car park, head up the hill, turning L at Pensarn. At the end of this street, turn L, then take your first R up past Rhiw Bethel. At the fork, turn L to follow the single track road around the bend. Follow this track until you reach a large stone farmhouse. Follow the signposted path to the L, which leads through a field and then to a junction with a waymark post.

1

At the junction, go straight ahead. Go over the ladder stile and take the L turn beneath the telephone wires, which doubles back and leads slightly uphill towards another stile. Go over this stile and head through the woods. You'll pass a tall wooden stile on your L. Stay on the path through the woodland, hugging the stone wall. The path will head downhill and cross a wooden stile. Take care as this stile can be slippery when wet.

At the bottom of the hill, the path meets a track. Follow the signposted path to the L. At the cattle grid, turn R and go through the gate. Follow the next track signposted on your L and then head through the metal kissing gate into the field. Follow the edge of the field towards the woodland (straight ahead). Here, you'll come to a stone stile with a metal gate above. Head through the gate and turn L. Follow this path until it exits the woods, and then follow the track. When this track meets the road, turn L.

Follow the road until you reach the railway bridge. Here, follow the signposted path on your L. Follow the signposted path, which will lead you through a gate and into a field with a small boardwalk. At the end of the boardwalk, take the fork to the R. Cross the concrete stile to follow the railway line. Head through the wooden gate and turn R along the track, which leads back to the start point.
