- S Starting from Canolfan Llwynihirion Brynberian, at the gate take the road straight ahead towards the village. At the junction turn R and continue following the road for 0.64 miles / 1 km. Turn R through the signposted gates and follow the scenic tree-lined bridleway along its gradual ascent. Continue through gate entering field. Head across the field to a stile and banking. Cross the stile onto the banking, taking the next stile into another field. Cross the field to the signposted gate. Exit through the gate turning R.
- 1 Follow the track to the tarmac road. Continue along the road for 0.93 miles / 1.5 km until reaching the main road (B4329). Take the signposted track on the R, entering the open access land through the gate. Waun Mawn contains nationally important archaeological features including a number of large standing stones scattered across the landscape. You may wish to spend some time exploring this area, enjoying the scenic views across Pembrokeshire Coast National Park, else continue to follow the stony track L towards a farm.
- 2 With the farm behind you cross the moorland following the signposts until reaching the fence line. Bear R along the track keeping the fence line on the L. Continue following the track past a stile heading towards wind turbines in the distance. Go through waymarked gate ahead crossing a field. Exit field through another gate turning L onto tarmac road. Continue along road until reaching forked junction. Take the road on the L and continue for 0.5 miles / 820m until reaching a farmhouse.
- 3 Turn R at the farm following the signposted path uphill. Continue along the muddy track through a gate, follow the track through a second gate into a field. Two large Standing Stones stand vigil in the enclosed field to the R. Follow the path around the fence line exiting the field onto the tarmac road through the gate ahead. Turn L onto the signposted bridleway where the track is stony and muddy (Feird Soar). Turn L through the gates onto the open access moorland. Learn more about Coed Tŷ Canol National Nature Reserve on the information board here.
- 4 Follow the path along the fence with the impressive Carnedd Meibion Owen on the R. Continue as the path descends into the woods. Go through the gate straight ahead. Follow the waymarking and muddy/stony track as it winds its way through the ancient woodland. Both a Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI) and Special Area of Conservation (SAC) the woods are home to more than 400 species of lichens. At the path junction take bear R. If time allows explore the area further by bearing L and completing the NRW Tŷ Canol walk.
- 5 Follow the meandering track and waymarking posts until reaching a gate and information board. Go through the gate following the track with farm on R. Continue along the tarmac path. See if you can spot Pentre Ifan Burial Chamber in the distance to the L. At the junction with the road continue straight ahead to arrive back at the Canolfan. Turning L and following the road leads to the burial chamber which is worth a visit if you have the time.
