- S Starting from the Three Pigeons pub, Graig Fechan (parking available for £1), turn R out of the car park and head down the main road as far as the dip after the pub. Take the bridleway to the L and follow this until you meet the track. At the track turn L and follow this until you reach the entrance to Graig Wyllt Nature Reserve. Entering the reserve follow the path keeping the wall on your L.
- 1 Go up the steps with the woven fence on your R hand side. At the top of the steps follow the footpath waymarker straight on, with the fence on your left, until you reach the pedestrian gate at the edge of the wood. Passing through the gate, continue along the path. Just before the private house gate at the end take the footpath on the R hand side. Once through the gate follow the field boundary to your L, exiting through another pedestrian gate onto a minor road.
- 2 Turn L out the gate then follow the road round to the R. Pentre Coch cottage should be on your R hand side. Follow the road for approximately 100m. Take the footpath on the R, just before the post box. The house, Plas Tirion, will be on your L as you go along the path and over a stone stile. Turn L along the back of the house. Go through the field gate ahead, keeping the hedge on your R hand side.
- 3 A stile in the corner will lead you to the next field and towards the large house. Passing below the house there is a stile in the corner leading you onto their drive. Just before their gates turn L over the wooden bridge and then over the stile. Straight ahead you pass through a field gate leading out onto the road. Turn R on the road heading uphill. When you reach the houses on the L hand side take the footpath to your R, descending and crossing over the footbridge. Follow the path and cross the stile into the field.
- 4 Head straight up the field just to the R of the upper large tree. Cross into the next field using the field gate and continue up and L to the stile ahead that leads onto the road. On the road turn R heading downhill. Just after the first house on the L, turn L along a track below the house. Go towards and over a stile ahead of you. Follow the field boundary keeping it on your R. Cross two stiles and descend the steps to the bridge. Head up the field towards the fence. Follow the fence, crossing the stile and then meeting a track.
- 5 Turning R on the track, follow this down to the road. At the road turn R, following it for approximately 50m before taking the footpath on your L hand side. Follow the waymarks to your R then cross over the stile turning L and heading back into the woodland. This is a great spot to admire the views of Moel Famau. Once in the woods turn R and follow the waymarking through the wood until you re-join your original path near the woven fence. Turn L here and retrace your initial steps back to the Pub.
