S Starting from the information board in the middle of Rhayader, head along the B4518 (Bridge Street) toward the Elan Valley. Turn R onto the Aberystwyth Mountain Road. Head along the road and take the first L to cross a bridge. Go past the houses and there is a bridleway on the L. Head along the bridleway and past the farm on your R. At the end of the track turn R and head into the wood.

1 Follow the track through a gate and around to the L, turn R after the buildings and then and immediately L to follow the track (keeping the fence on your R). Follow the bridleway to head back into the open access woodland. Go through the woodland keeping the fence on your R, then go through the gate keeping the fence line now on your L. Go through the gate and turn L to walk in front of the house which will be on your L. Go downhill and through the field gate into the field.

2 Head down through the field to the R of the tree line. Go through the field gate, following the track and stream for a short distance then turn L over the stile into the field. Head through the field keeping the fence line on your L. Continue going over three further stiles through the farmland. Then go over the stile on your L going back into the woodland.

3 Head slight L through the open access woodland to join with the bridleway. Turn R to join the bridleway and head down the track through the coniferous woodland. Continue along the track to join the B4518. Turn R onto the road for a short while before turning L onto a bridleway. The bridleway heads to the L to join the cycle path turn L to join the cycle path. At the end of the cycle path turn R onto the B4518 and head back into the town to arrive back at the information board.
