S Starting from the Echo Rock car park, take the dirt track across to the other side of the pass, which heads beneath a cliff face and turns R. Follow this track until you reach a junction with a signpost and a metal gate. Turn R to continue through the gate. At the pond, turn L to follow the Coast Path. At the next fork there will be a bench with a good view of the Orme. Turn R here to stay on the Coast Path.

1 Follow the Coast Path uphill through the heathland towards the top of Conwy Mountain. The summit is marked with a plaque and some interpretation panels, and features a ruined hill fort as well as views of the coast and the Conwy River. Just after reaching the summit, take the path which heads South (downhill to your R, heading away from the coast). This will lead to a track with an interpretation panel. Turn R here and continue downhill. Follow the track back to the start location.
