

Lle mae Clawdd Wat yn cwrdd â Chlawdd Offa

Gorsaf Cefn-y-bedd i Fynydd yr Hob drwy Gaergwle.

Camfeydd, rhai rhannau serth a rhywfaint o dir anwastad.

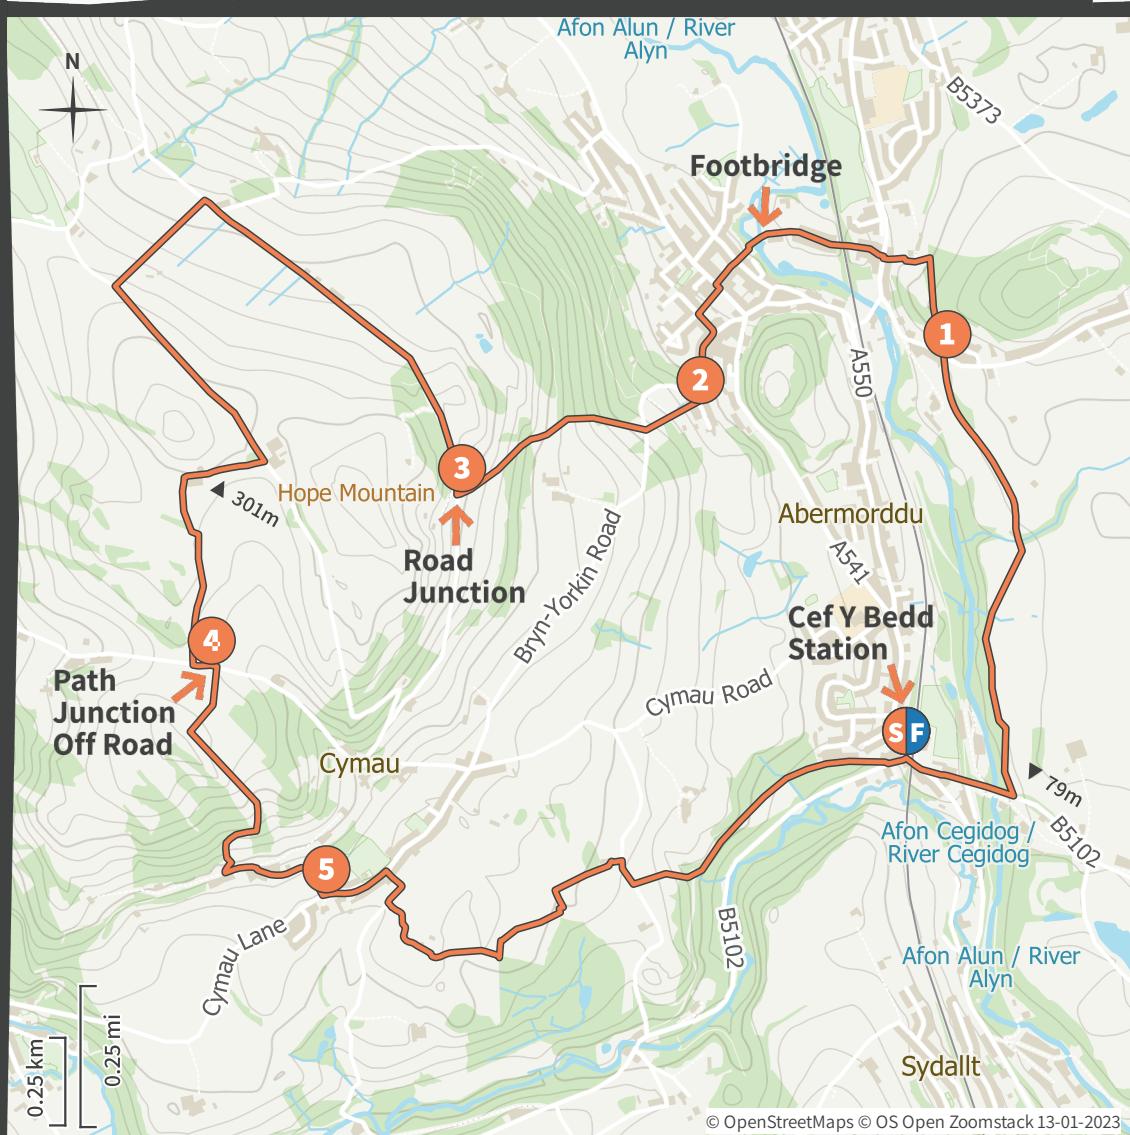

Wedi mwynhau'r daith gerdded hon? Mae 145 o deithiau Llwybrau i Lesiant i'w harchwilio ledled Cymru!

Where Wat Meets Offa

Cefn Y Bedd station to Hope Mountain via Caergwle.

Stiles, some steep sections and some uneven terrain.

Enjoy this ramble? There are 145 Paths to Wellbeing routes to explore across Wales!

- S Starting from Cefn Y Bedd station turn L and pass under the railway bridge. At the traffic lights take the road to the L and follow down to and across the river. After crossing the river take the path on your L, joining Wats Dyke. After approx. 600m take the stile on the R into the field. Turning L across the field, cross the bridge and across the next field to the R of the house. A pedestrian gate will lead you into a wooded area. Turn L and go over the footbridge onto the track. Follow this track all the way until it meets the road.
- 1 Cross straight over the road taking the path leading up to the woods. After crossing a stile drop L following the path leading you down into Caergwle, joining the North Wales Link path. Follow the track down to the road and cross straight over. Cross the railway and a bridge over the Alyn. The path takes you up across a minor road then across again to meet the A541. Cross straight over heading up past the car park. Follow Bryn Yorkin lane round to the L. As the road steepens follow the link path signs directing you R at "Loreley".
- 2 Very soon take the path on the L after the garage. Continue up the field, keeping to the R of the shed. Two stiles are used to cross the lane. Follow the R of the field and two stiles cross the road. The path then rises steeply through an orchard. Follow this until the stone wall then turn R into the woodland. Bear L at the first opportunity and follow the path steeply uphill. Take a L and then R at the gate. Just after the field gate turn R following the link path sign. At the edge of the woodland one field takes you to the road.
- 3 At the road turn R and follow for about 1km admiring the views across into England. The route then takes you L over a stile by a plantation and a clear path leads you all the way up to the road. Turn L on the road and then after about 600m turn R (marked Rhiwrob). Follow the track and after the buildings take the path on the L. A stile at the end of the path will lead you to another stile and lane to your R. This will take you to the road. At the road turn L and then take the first footpath on your R.
- 4 The footpath heads up through some horse fields and is well signed. At the top it heads L and downhill. When you reach a path junction going L and R, go R and follow the path until it descends into Cymau. When you meet the houses turn L and follow down to the main road. At the main road go L.
- 5 Turn R at junction signed to church. Take 1st L after church. Keep R through the houses and at the end of the track take the gate going down a bank with steps. The path climbs, at the top take stile on the L. Cross the field towards the houses to a kissing gate. Past the houses take the stile on the R and go down to the R of the house. Turn R on the road. Follow road until the first stile on L. Go down the field heading towards the woods. Turn L at bottom and follow all the way to the road. Turn L at the road to return to station.