S

Starting from Coracle Hall, cross A484, turn R and head up the road passing the school and bus shelter on your L. Up from the bus shelter you will see a footpath on your R, cross the road and head down the footpath (take care of the traffic here). Continue along the path until you see the pedestrian gate entering into the field. Passing through the gate, continue in the same direction across the field keeping the houses on your R. A waymarker post on the edge of the woodland will take you slightly to the L of a footbridge.

Cross the bridge and go straight through the gate. Head up the field with the hedgerow on your R and continue along to the pedestrian gate where you will cross a sleeper and go through a second pedestrian gate. Head straight up the field, following the fence line. You will see Glanolmarch House, a Victorian House on your R - turn R keeping the fence line on your R - you will see a waymarker disc on your R and a disused stile. Continue to walk with the fence line on your R and head towards the pedestrian gate.

2

Go through the pedestrian gate and head down the steps. On the road turn R. Continue along the road with houses on your R and you will come down a slight hill ending in a T Junction where you turn R. Head along the road and then there will be a pedestrian gate on your R. Go through the gate and follow the direction on the waymarker where you will see a waymarker post on your R. Head through the gateway where you will see a waymarker disc on your (L or R), head through the gateway and head across the field towards a waymarker post on your R.

3

Go through the field gate with the barns on your L and follow the track which curves around to the R and then to the L. Go through the field gate into a field and up a short bank with the fence line on your R. Carry on through the field towards a pedestrian gate. Go through the gate and Coracle Hall will be on your R.
