Walk through the churchyard and continue onto to the High Street. You'll pass a blue archway with mosaics and information about the history of Holy Island. You may wish to detour onto the bridge from here (a good place to spot guillemots and other seabirds). To return to the Ucheldre Centre, stay on the High street and then turn R at the anchor statue to head uphill. Turn left at the Branch Pub onto Edmund street, and then R into the alley leading back to the Ucheldre.
