

Trearddur Bay

A route linking Holyhead and Trearddur Bay.

Mostly paved with a few stiles and gates. Some walking along minor roads, and a few rocky areas along the coast path..

Enjoy this ramble? There are 145 Paths to Wellbeing routes to explore across Wales!

Leisurely

118m

Circular

8.9km | 5.5m

03:00

S

Starting from Kingsland Rd, beside Holyhead station, follow King's Rd. At the end of the street, turn L and follow the cycle route/footpath past the cemetery and onto Porthdafarch Rd. Cross the road and take the footpath through the estate, leading through a metal gate into a field. Follow until you reach the next road and then turn L. Take the next footpath on the right which will lead along a track towards Trearddur Bay

1

You'll pass some houses on your L and then reach a point where the footpath turns ; off the track. Follow the footpath until it reaches another road. Cross the road and you will arrive at a sandy beach with rock formations. Follow the coast path ; from here (keeping the sea on your R) to Trearddur Bay lifeboat station. From the lifeboat station, follow Lon Isallt and then turn L onto Lon St Fraid. Take the next R onto Lon Twyn Capel and follow this road until the fork. Turn L here onto Lon Trefignath

2

Head along Lon Trefignath until the roundabout. Here, take the path to the R to Trefignath burial chamber. After visiting the burial chamber, continue along the path through the next roundabout. At the large double roundabout, turn L and then R, heading along Kingsland Rd back to the start location.

Consider the environment
Please think before you print

The Ramblers' Association is a registered charity.
(England & Wales No.1093577, Scotland No.SC039799)

