S Starting from the Ucheldre Centre, turn R then L onto Garreglwyd Rd. Cross the road towards the playing field and follow the footpath which runs alongside it. This path will lead you around to a gate on the other side of the field, leading into a marshy paddock. Follow the path along the edge of the paddock and cross the stone stile. Continue ahead through two kissing gates into an open area with telephone poles and a hillock ahead. Head straight over the hillock to the next kissing gate on your L.

1 This marks the edge of Tre Wilmot Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI). You may wish to explore the lowland wet heath habitat in this area of open access land. Head through the kissing gate, following the path through the woods into a rocky area of gorse and heather. Enjoy the views of Holyhead Mountain in the distance to your R. Continue along the path through a series of gates and paddocks onto Plas Road. Turn L and take the next signposted footpath up the steps through the gate on your R into an area of gorse and heather.

2 You are now entering another area of open access land. Follow the route as it meanders over the rocky hillock and through the gorse to a kissing gate in the dry stone wall on the far side. From here, continue straight across the field and over a stile through the hedge. Turn L following the footpath along the edge of the field to the road. Take the stile and turn L onto Porthdafarch Road. Take the next footpath off the road on your L, over a stone stile. Cross the field, footbridge and stone stile ahead entering Treseifion Estate.

3 Turn R then L onto Treseifion Road. Follow the route past Maeshyfryd Cemetery onto Maeshyfryd Road. The Thetis Memorial, in memory of 99 souls lost from HMS Thetis, is located in the cemetery. Turn L onto Gwynfa Hill ascending until emerging onto Edmund Street. Turn L then R onto Mill Bank. Follow Mill Bank past the Chester Hotel on your L and back to the Ucheldre Centre.
