

Six Bells to Blaina Walk

A long hike linking Six Bells and Blaina.

Tarmac, moorland, single track.

Enjoy this ramble? There are 145 Paths to Wellbeing routes to explore across Wales!

Strenuous

457m

Circular

16.0km | 9.9m

05:00

S

Starting from Six Bells Park walk down Eastville Road until you reach Bridge Street. Turn L and walk down until Chapel Road where you turn R and head across and towards the houses where a small track will lead around to the R. Continue on this path until a fork to the L drops you down onto the cycle path continue on this path until it leads you back out onto Castle Street. Follow this street until a L turn takes you down to a car park. Head through the Tesco car park until you meet Aberbeeg Road.

1

Cross over and take Bridge Street along the line of the river until a small path leads to the R between houses and river and brings you out on Carlyle Street. Continue on this along the river once more until you reach a car par. The path continues on the R past playing fields and goes on for several KM now as the Ebbw Fach Trail. Continue on this until a subway leads under the A467 and brings you out on Station Road in Blaina. Continue on this road until a path leads into a small green space on the L.

2

Follow the path to the L through the green space until it leads out onto High Street, turn L and then immediately R and follow Queen Street to the end where steps up to the R lead onto another small green space. Turn L here and head up onto the main road and turn R. Follow this road down and turn L onto Tanglewood Drive, as you walk up the drive, paths on the R lead up a hill and continue up the main dirt track which will eventually turn into a path leading to a kissing gate at the foot of the hill.

3

Pass through the gate and take the steep miners track as it curves to the L, past old workings and cuts a long track to the top of the moor. This path will continue along open ground until it reaches a junction. Turn R here and follow the path across the top of the moor. Stick to the main path as it curves R and then L before finally meeting a fenced sheep enclosure at the far end of the moor. Continue with the enclosure on your L until you see a kissing gate. Turn L without using the gate and continue until a stile leads R.

4

Cross the stile and follow the path out onto the fire road through the pine plantation. Follow this as it heads down the hill eventually joining the Road. Turn R here and follow the road Straight on until it meets Gladstone Street. Turn L here and then R onto Alma Street. Follow this down the hill and turn L onto Castle Street. Head straight on with Tesco on your R, once past this point retrace your steps from the beginning of the walk to return to Six Bells Park.

Consider the environment
Please think before you print

The Ramblers' Association is a registered charity.
(England & Wales No.1093577, Scotland No.SC039799)

