Starting from the Grosmont Community Hub (with the building behind you), go R down the main road until you reach a small road on the R after the church. Head down this road until you reach a descending rocky path to the bottom of the valley, where you will cross a wooden bridge to then go R through a gate ahead and up the steep tarmac road towards Barns Farm. Cross the yard and continue past the cottage on your L, follow the track as it winds up to the top of the hill where you will meet the road. From here cross into the field on your R and head for the stile at the top, cross over and go R to enter the pine wood ahead.

Once into the woods, turn L and follow the path through the woods until come out into fields. Turn R and walk along the edge, crossing some stiles until the ground slopes upwards towards some telecommunications masts and the trig point that is the top of Edmunds Tump. From here turn sharp L and head back down the hill, passing a concrete platform on the way towards the gate at the bottom of the field. Pass through and follow this track until you reach the pine wood ahead, the path continues through the wood.

Once through the wood, the path leads into a field with a stile onto the road. Take this road L as it curves R and eventually becomes a dirt track headed into fields. Follow this track until you see a stile on your R where a path heads down the hill and diagonally across the field to a gate and another dirt track. Follow this until you reach a fork, take the L path past a barn on your R followed by another L and then head to far end of the trees to a stile. Head L and R up the Head up the field, keeping the fence line on your L until you reach the top of the hill, keep going until you get to the woods where a stile leads onto an ancient track through the woods that will eventually bring you out onto more fields. Head diagonally across the field for the stile. Keep headed down the hill to the next gate and then straight on to the stile and small bridge over the drainage ditch.

Once over the ditch, the path heads down towards a stile next to a small house, cross this stile, being mindful of the steps on the other side and turn L. Following the path down next to a barn the path emerges in another field, head past the oak tree and towards the scrub where you will see a waymark post that guides you across another wooden bridge and into the next field. From here cross a series of stiles and head down towards the road. Turn L, follow the road over the bridge and up the hill back into Grosmont.
