S Starting from beside the Minffordd playground, follow the footpath alongside the road towards Portmeirion until you reach a strip of woodland on your R. Take the bridleway to the R, through the woods along a track. This enters a field through a field gate. Follow the field edge, keeping the fence on your R, head through the next gate where you will reach a crossroads with a barn on your R. Follow the signposted bridleway straight ahead (trending slightly uphill and to the L). You will cross a cattlegrid, a pond on your L and alongside a farmyard.

1 At the end, follow the Coast Path to the R through a field gate, cross the field to the next field gate on to a track through the woodland. A small path on your R will lead you up to the viewpoint and picnic area. Re-join the track and head downhill until you reach a bridleway on your R, heading uphill. Take some time to explore Pen Cob Woodland Nature Walk. Heading up the bridleway you will go through a field gate, before you reach the sheep holding area at the top of the hill you will see a footpath on your L.

2 Take the footpath up a set of steps and through a gate, continue up the hill through the woodland keeping a stone wall on your R. Where the wall ends continue straight to the cross road of paths. Cross over and turn L on to the footpath to return to the start.
