Starting from Felin Puleston car park, enter Erddig through the gate next to the outdoor classroom. This is between a red brick house and the bridge. Follow the path with the river on your L. At the path junction with a bridge turn R. Follow this path towards the main entrance, (taking a short diversion when signed to see the cup and saucer if you wish). When you reach the tea room keep following the road with the buildings on your L. Keep straight past the red brick dovecote until you reach a kissing gate going into a field.

1

Turn L before the kissing gate. Follow the path with the boundary on your R. Follow until a junction offers you the chance to go R. Follow this lovely tree lined path through Big Wood until a kissing gate brings you out onto the road. Turn R on the road and then take the first footpath on the L heading into a field (this is opposite a farm track on the R).

2

Follow the L hand side field boundary until you see a gate on the L. Take this and head diagonally across the next field into the Mill Pool Covert area. Look for the waymark post. A new gate will lead you to a section of boardwalk and eventually to a new footbridge. Once over the footbridge follow the L hand edge of the field until you reach the road. Turn L on the road. You will pass a road junction on your R. Continue straight on.

3

Take the next L signposted as a footpath at Marchweil Hall. Follow the drive down (signed stables and delivery) and just before the house a waymark post will direct you R into the field where you follow the L hand boundary. You will come to a stile that you can just walk round. The path then goes diagonally across the field to your L and passes under the power lines. There is a pedestrian gate to lead you to Bryn y cabau.

4

Cross the drive and you will see the footpath to the R of the house. Follow into the woods, R at the fork and then trend R and down. At the footbridge, cross and go L of the hedge in front and a kissing gate will take you into the woods. Pick up the Clywedog Trail. Turn L and follow through the woods all the way back to Felin Puleston and your start point. There is one road crossing on this section. When almost back at the carpark there are a few path options. Head through the two fenceposts.
