Starting from Coracle Hall, turn L and walk downhill on the footpath. Cross the road just before the 7 Stars pub and you will see a waymarker post - go down the track. There is a gate on your L, go through this and head down Myrtle Hill until you come to a stile on a tarmac lane where you turn L and head towards the bridge.

1

Turn L and walk across the bridge, then turn L along the road. Continue along the road towards Manordeifi Church which will be on your L. Feel free to explore inside the church and see the old Coracle. The road will curve around the the R and then there will be a road junction and a footpath on the R, head along the footpath through the woodland and through a pedestrian gate into a field and turn L. Keep the fence on your L and head across the field to a pedestrian gate.

Go through the gate and head through the field up the steep bank to a pedestrian gate. Go through the gate and turn R, continue along the farm track to the end of the field where there is a pedestrian gate on your L. Go through the gate and continue through the field. Continue straight through three fields and gates until you come to a pedestrian gate on the roadside.

3

Go through the gate, join the road and turn R. Follow the road and cross Llechryd Bridge. Once across the bridge, turn L and then turn R over the stile up Myrtle Hill. Once you are at the main road, turn L and head along the pavement back to Coracle Hall.
